TTC PRESENTS THE PULIZTER-PRIZE WINNING "RENT"

The Theater Company's First Full Scale Musical of the Season

January 11, 2010: The Theater Company (TTC) is planning for "a happy New Year," as the song goes, as they present Jonathan Larson's Pulitzer-prize winning Broadway musical RENT this coming February 2010. RENT is based loosely on Puccini's opera "La Bohème" and follows a year in the lives of seven friends as they deal with love, loss and AIDS while living the disappearing Bohemian lifestyle in New York's East Village.

RENT reunites some of TTC's favorite production team members including: David Zimmerman, Director; Margaret Leone, Assistant Director; Meg Zervoulis, Musical Director; and Nancy D'Andrea, Choreographer who, along with their cast, are excited to turn the show out in only four weeks time – having just auditioned and cast the show this past week.

The cast includes some familiar faces to TTC productions (*) and a plethora of fresh faces including: Tamala Baldwin (Joanne), Noah Brendemuehl (Roger), Glen Llanes (Angel), Nicole Nicastro (Maureen), Jake Ottosen (Mark), Reny Rosado (Benny), Antoine L. Smith (Collins), Katelyn Spinosa (Mimi) and Ensemble members: Jerome Amanquiton, Mimi Francis, Anna Grace, Brandon Hightower, Stav Meishar, Kara Moulter, *Fred Mursch, Casey O'Keefe, Ben Schnickel, Steven Slatten and *Adena Weisholtz.

So join the cast as they sing of "Seasons of Love," "La Vie Boheme," and dance the "Tango Maureen." You need to go "Out Tonight," so why not see a dynamic production that won't cost you a month's "Rent."
